THE COMING REVOLUTION,

The General's article in this Car Canada. What is wanted in every state

Corps Reports (brevier.) of society at some time or other is a Revolution. Old methods get out of date, and the old order of things has to be all upset. Gace upon a time every man that happened to see a little further than his neighbor, and had the course of his convictions, was called a Revolu-tionary, and probably had to pay the lofteness, and probably had to pay the lofteness, and probably had to pay the lofteness, and probably had to have the conviction of the lofteness is not so common now in this respecttury, although an outbreak occurs now and again. But Revolutions are not extinct, notwithstanding, nor the need of them; and percape it is safe to say thep never will be. There will always be a class of people who will stick on to old ways because they are old, and who will never willingly move a hairsbreadth in the line of advance.

a hairstreadth in the line of advance. They get out of date and the new gen-eration goes merrily on with its new life and its new ways.

Here we are then with a pending Revolution in Canada. There is no other wey in which it can be described, and we may say beforehand that we are sure we express what will be the ver-dict of wayer officer, when the details sure we express what will be the ver-dict of every officer when the details are made known. This much will be gathered from the forecast given by the Commandant on another page, but the full plans will be brought before the rail pleas will be brought before the Councils at Montreal. The Councils have been convened for the very pur-pose of making the old and the new Staff acquainted with the proposals, and for starting them into operation This is a call to every soldier and recruit in the Dominion. The General's recruit in the Dominion. The veneral a article is an appeal to officers. In another week or two we may expert from him an appeal to the soldiers. It is an appeal to the whole Army and to every individual member. It is a load raction. Let no one forget that they fight in conjunction with legions shore. Men and women make up one wing of the Army of the Lord of Hosts on earth, and angels make up the Cotte in heaven, while the Lord God Almighty Himself leads the van. Here Aimgaty Himsell leads the van. Here we may bend our full strength to the battle, knowing we fight in a righteous cause, and knowing also, glery be to His Holy Name, that we fight not to destroy but to save. Here is the end of our warfare, the salvation of souls.

ALL ABOUT THE CRY.

A naw dress again! Quite so! The WAR CRY is still alive, very much alive we hope, and is going to be more alive than ever. This does not complete the than ever. This does not complete the budget. Other revelations are to come. All in good time, please. The comical thing is that it takes some people as month before they wake up and see any change is made. Just look at the type. There is long primer, bourgeois, brevier, and nonnareil. There are italica, black and nonparett. There are trance, meck face clarendons, sanserifs, gothics, antiques. The columns are 131 ems pica with a long primer rule extra. This makes a wider margin and a higger gutter.

In other words, if you want to get your article in the Cav in future you will have to cut it short, or any way shorter than it used to be. Bound for the Better Land.

BY MASEL SCOTT, GUELPH. TONE-Over Jordan.

We are out upon thu deep, or are out upon the deep.
Sading in the Gospel ship,
And our loved ones we shall most,
Hallelujah!
There our sarrows will be o'er,
And His name we will adore

There our sarrows wall be o e.,
And His name we will adore
On that happy golden shore,
Hallelujah!

Hallelejah, hallelejah? We are bound for Canaan's share, Where the faithful part no more; Hatlelejah, hallelejah? We are bound for Canaan's abore, We'll be robed in spotless white, And we'll wear bright crowns of light, Then we'll sing with ell our might. Hallelujah!

Hallelujah : We shall play on harps of gold When our Saviour we behold, Then our joy will be untold. Hallelujah : Naw, poor sinner, come along, Come with us and join our throng, For the journey won't be long. Hallelujah

Come, and He will make you whole. He will heal your sin-sick soul, You'll be happy evermore, Hallelujah TUNE -The Cross now covers my sink Some people have said it's presumption To say that I know I am right. But I have the witness e'er present. And walk now by faith, not by sight.

The Cross now covers my sins.
The past is under the blood,
I'm trusting in Jesus for all.
My will is the will of my God.

I know all my sins are forgiren,
Though oute they as nountains did rise
I know list my faith leads to hearen,
That country so fair in the skies.

I know there's a mansion in glory For all who are true to their God. I know there's a crown over youder For all who shell conquer by blood.

I know there are loved ones with Jesus Who are uniting just over the way, I know if I, too, am but faithful I'll meet them again some glad day.

For God in His own Word has told me
"I write to you that yo may know;"
So, glory, I'm guessing no longor,
Nor hoping, but know it is so.

The Blood of Jesus.

BY SHIOAPIER MARGETTS. Tune-Roll on dark dream.

The blood of Jesus is a source Where fear, and shame, and sin's remorse Are swept away, and not a stain Where flows the blood can e'er remain.

Oh, the blood, the precious blood, It saves from guilt and sin; Oh, brother, how, and in its cleausing tide

The blood of Jesus is a power In which I trust in derkert hour; No doubt, defeat, or care I know, While to the cleansing fount I go

The blood of Jesus is my ples, I know, I feel, 'twas shed for me; Salvation, balliness and hearett, By blood Divine, to me are given.

The blood of Jesus I'll proclaim, And by the might of Jesus' name Simura shall yield, and Satan see Through Jesus blood I've victory.

CEDRUS.

Now then, all together.

Let us fight forever;

Till all shall yield

That's on the field

Of self and sinful pleasure;

Our God shall reign.

And we shall reign.

Our God shall reign, And we shall gain The favor of our King and Maker; We will fight, we're sare to conquer, Conquer through the blood.

The Lord of Hoda will lead us forward. If we'll only but prace onward. Let us all now be countered as And light against the wrong. We are fighting for the Sacriour, Do not seek to have men's favor.

Redeemed by the Blood.

True -Oh, the Lamb, the bleeding Lamb.

My soul I know has been redeemed,
By Jesus precious blood;
And all who will may come and be Washed in the crimaan flood.
